

RED HAT CHALLENGE 2012

Red Hat Challenge 2012- "For the students, By the students"

Take the Ultimate Challenge and Win

Red Hat Challenge 2012 is a regional knowledge based challenge aimed at creating a fun and educational opportunity for students to showcase their knowledge about Linux and Virtualization. Going into the third year of the competition, this year's contest will be open to students in Asia Pacific, including Singapore, Malaysia, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Mainland China.

This competition is open to all full-time students from tertiary institutions.

The competition will include 3 rounds of contests happening between November – December 2012. The final round of the competition would be held in China and our champion will be walking away with exciting prizes including:

- A Samsung Galaxy SIII
- An internship program with Red Hat or training course by Red Hat
- A Raspberry PI
- A Trophy

Share this with your students or fellow lecturers if you think that your students may be the ones we are searching for. Find out more / register at <http://apac.redhat.com/redhatchallenge2012> from now till 26 October 2012.

We look forward for your school's participation!

Terms and Conditions of this competition applies. The judges decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
